The Opportunity

Alta-1 College QLD is growing and as such we are currently calling for expressions of interest from well-qualified, experienced and passionate Christian teachers who have a heart for educationally at-risk and vulnerable young people. Where appointed, applicants will work closely with staff teams at one of our secondary programs (middle and senior school programs), to provide transformational education for the relevant student cohort. Appointed applicants will be responsible for delivering a highly engaging learning program, to students, within an Alta-1 curriculum and pedagogical framework. The position will work in collaboration with additional education and student services staff to support student learning, engagement and wellbeing. Positions will report directly to the Assistant Principal. Both primary and secondary trained teachers are encouraged to apply.

Responsibilities

Including but not limited to:

- Demonstrate a heart to see at-risk young people transforming and flourishing
- Create an environment that educationally disengaged young people will love to attend
- Promote and inspire learning among a group of educationally at-risk young people
- Work in alignment with the Alta-1 Education Domain Guidebook (the college education philosophy and pedagogical guide)
- Work collaboratively to ensure the achievement of excellent academic and socio-emotional outcomes for students
- Support a culture in which students experience positive relationships and safety
- Care for the student cohort in a way that reflects the college values
- Differentiate the teaching of the curriculum to ensure that the needs of all individuals are met
- Be sensitive to students experiencing academic, personal, social or challenges.
- Work positively and collaboratively under the leadership of the Assistant Principal, and as part of a highly collegial team.
